

Deployment rule and evidence boundary

Protocol metadata maps a scan pair to a predeclared calibrated group. If no mapping exists, the output uses the pooled homoscedastic fallback and is labelled empirical / outside guarantee.
Public scans test surface consistency and diagnostic transfer; they do not provide double-epoch truth.